My Community Credit Union
68th Annual Meeting
October 26, 2020
Chairman and President's Report

My Community Credit Union experienced another very successful year in 2019. In 2019, we opened our first Collin County branch. We expect the expansion into Collin County to lessen the impact of the challenges of operating in the oil dependent economy of West Texas. The Branch has performed very well, particularly in the short time it has been opened, showing a profit in the first few months of operation. We look forward to continuing to expand our services in both West Texas and North Texas.

My Community Credit Union contributed to many worthwhile community events in both volunteer time and donations. We supported Midland Crime Stoppers, Children Miracle Network, The Samaritan Inn homeless shelter in Collin County, and various other worthwhile organizations.

We, once again, this year provided scholarships to six well deserving students totaling $15,000.00.

The year-end results are very positive and reflect the great effort from Management and staff. We ended the year with a membership of 37,525, compared to 35,027 at year end 2018.

The West Texas labor market has seen a hit in the last couple of months as we have seen layoffs and consolidations related to recent Oil Company mergers. My Community is well prepared for this challenge and we expect to continue to be financially successful and well capitalized.

The loan portfolio as of year-end 2019 was $339,500,904. This is an increase of $38,400,004 from the previous year-end. In comparison, the loan portfolio as of year-end 2018 was $301,060,900. This equates to a gain of 12.77% in the portfolio from 2018 to 2019.

The Total Shares balances as of year-end 2019 was $382,879,179. This in an increase of $48,771,539 over the previous year. In comparison, the Total Shares balance as of year-end 2018 was $334,107,640. This equates to a 14.60% increase from 2018 to 2019.

We charged off $1,951,964 in net loan charge offs during 2019. This is a decrease of $69,363 or 3.43% from 2018 when we had net charge offs of $2,021,327.

We ended the year with total assets of $429,108,307 compared to $382,844,962 at year-end 2018. The Capital ratio as of year-end 2019 was 9.64% compared to 10.54% as of year-end 2018. We are very pleased with these results, especially considering we opened our new Allen Branch in late 2018. This can be attributed to quality project management as well as the efficiencies and process improvements we created during the year.

My Community Credit Union
68th Annual Meeting
October 26, 2020
Audit Committee Report

The Audit Committee is appointed by the Board of Directors from among the members of this Credit Union. This year's Committee members are Mitzi Baker, Chairman, Glen Luff, Tom Finnie, Donna Neal, Mark Williams, Gene DeLeon, Skye Westlund, Lezlie Veach, Stephanie Ramirez, and Marcus Davis.

The Audit Committee is primarily responsible for ensuring that the financial condition of the Credit Union is accurately and fairly represented in the Credit Union's financial statements and that the Credit Union's management practices and procedures are sufficient in safeguarding members' assets. To accomplish their charge, the Committee is therefore responsible for making, or causing to be made, audits of operations and to see to the verification of members' accounts.

To assist the Committee in these duties, external audit firms are retained to perform the required annual Opinion Audit. The Credit Union also retains an Internal Auditor who oversees Compliance and Audit, resulting in numerous audits performed throughout the year in various MCCU functional areas.

The Committee also assists in handling problems (legal and otherwise) that may arise with member accounts. Committee members are also available to assist the Board of Directors and MCCU staff in routine and special requirements.

The annual audits by the outside auditors, and the Texas Credit Union Department audit team resulted in excellent reviews. It is the opinion of this Committee that the MCCU financial statements reflect a true and accurate picture of the MCCU financial condition.

Respectfully submitted,

Mitzi Baker, Chairman
Audit Committee

CHAPTER III. MEMBERSHIP, MEETINGS AND ELECTIONS

Section 3.01. FIELD OF MEMBERSHIP

The field of membership in this credit union is limited to the following persons:¹

Persons who live, work, worship, or attend school in, and businesses and other legal entities located in Midland, Ector, or Collin Counties, Texas, spouses of persons who died while within the field of membership, volunteers in the community, and organizations of such persons and members of the family of such persons.

The field of membership also includes employees of the credit union and members of their families.

Section 3.02. APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

(a) Written Application. Each application for membership must be made in writing in the form prescribed by the board of directors.

(b) Admission to Membership. An applicant eligible for membership may be admitted to membership by the affirmative vote of the board of directors, at any board meeting, or by a membership officer appointed in accordance with these bylaws and the applicant shall become a member and be entitled to the rights and privileges of a member upon (1) paying the membership fee, if any, as set by the board of directors, and (2) establishing the minimum qualifying account balance as prescribed by written board policy.

¹ The Commission has promulgated standard optional provisions which may be used in addition or as an alternative to specific designations.

(c) Minors. Minors may be admitted to membership on the same conditions that apply to adults with the following exceptions: (1) No minor may vote until attaining the age of 18; and (2) No minor may become a director or committee member until attaining the age of 18.

Section 3.03. CONTINUED MEMBERSHIP

Once a person is approved and qualified for membership, that person may remain a member until the person chooses to withdraw or is expelled in accordance with these bylaws.

Section 3.04. EXPULSION FROM MEMBERSHIP AND FORFEITURE OF MEMBERSHIP

(a) Expelling a Member. Based upon a finding of good cause, the board of directors may vote to expel a member of the credit union. Good cause shall include, but not be limited to: (1) Failure to maintain the requirements necessary for membership; (2) Physical abuse or assault, harassment or multiple instances of verbal abuse of an employee, an officer, a director, or another member of the credit union; (3) Neglect or refusal to comply with provisions of the Credit Union Act, Commission rules, these bylaws, or the articles of incorporation; (4) Conviction of a felony; (5) Habitual neglect to pay obligations or default on an obligation resulting in a financial loss to the credit union; (6) Causing a financial loss to the credit union by means of theft, malfeasance, or misconduct; and (7) Insolvency or bankruptcy. After an initial vote to expel, the board must give written notice to the member of the right to a hearing upon written request and must therein inform the member of the cause for expulsion and of the procedure for expulsion. Forty-five (45) days after the date of notice, the expulsion automatically becomes final unless the member has responded with a written request for a hearing and appears at the hearing when scheduled as provided for herein. Upon receiving such a request, the board shall schedule a date for the hearing which must be within forty-five (45) days after receipt of the request. No less than fifteen (15) days prior to the hearing, the board must send to the member written notice of the date, time and place for the hearing. After the hearing, the board shall again vote on whether to expel the member. The member is expelled if a majority of the board votes to expel.

(b) Continuing Liability. An expelled member shall remain liable for any sums owed to the credit union for loans or other purposes.

(c) Automatic Forfeiture of Membership. Members whose loans or extensions of credit are defaulted and charged off as a loss automatically forfeit membership. If any funds on deposit are not applied toward the loan balance or any other indebtedness of the member, the credit union shall, within a reasonable time, close all accounts of the member and mail the funds to the member. Reinstatement of membership in case of forfeiture may only be by majority vote of the board of directors.

(d) Exception. Notwithstanding subsection (a), a member that does not maintain the minimum qualifying account balance in accordance with §3.02(b) of these bylaws will be sent written notification that failure to maintain the minimum balance required indicates that the member no longer wishes to participate in the affairs of the credit union. The member will be given forty-five (45) days from the date the letter is mailed to notify the credit union of his or her desire to maintain membership and meet the minimum share or other qualifying account requirements. A member's failure to appropriately respond within the indicated timeframe will be considered a request to close the account and withdraw all funds, thereby voluntarily terminating membership in the credit union.

(e) Unacceptable Conduct. If the unacceptable conduct of a member poses an imminent threat to the safety or welfare of any officer, director or employee, the president, the president's designee, or the board may temporarily suspend the member. If a suspension is imposed, the member may be denied all services except the right to maintain a share account and the right to vote at annual and special meetings. The board shall provide the member with a written notice of suspension that includes a statement of the alleged facts that form the basis of the suspension. The suspension becomes effective upon service of the notice upon the member. By its terms the suspension automatically converts to an expulsion 45 days from the date of notification, unless prior thereto, the board takes action to stay, modify or extend the suspension. A member served with a notice of suspension may apply to the board for a stay of the suspension pending the completion of the expulsion procedures contained in subsection (a) of this section. Before implementing the provisions of this subsection, the board of directors will establish written policies regarding member conduct on credit union premises and the potential sanctions which may be imposed against a disruptive or abusive member.

Section 3.05. MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

(a) Annual Meeting. The credit union shall hold an annual meeting of the members before June 1 of each year, in a county within Texas in which an office of the credit union is located, at such time and place as the board of directors shall determine to be convenient to the membership.

(b) Special Meetings. Special meetings shall be held by order of the directors or upon written request to the board of directors of at least two percent (2%) of the members or five hundred (500) members, whichever is less. Notice of any special meeting shall state the purpose for which it is to be held and no other business other than that related to the stated purpose shall be transacted at the meeting. The board of directors must schedule the meeting within forty-five (45) days of the request unless the time is extended by the Commissioner.

(c) Notice of Meetings. Notice of all meetings shall be given by the secretary who shall, at least fifteen (15) days before the date of the meeting, post a notice thereof in a conspicuous place in each office of the credit union and shall mail, or hand in person, to each member a notice of the meeting; except that if the annual meeting is to be held during the same month as that of the previous annual meeting, and if this credit union maintains an office that is readily accessible to members and that maintains regular business hours, and if the board so determines, notices of the annual meeting may be given by posting the notice thereof in each office of the credit union in a conspicuous place where it may be read by the members, at least thirty (30) days prior to such meeting. Any meeting of the members, whether annual or special, may be held without prior notice, at any place or time, if all the members entitled to vote thereat who are not present at such meeting shall in writing waive notice thereof before or during the meeting. (Refer to Texas Finance Code, §122.052 for voting rights). The notice for either the annual or a special meeting shall state the nature of the business to be transacted.

(d) Conduct of Meetings. Annual and special meetings shall be presided over by the chairman of the board or the chief executive officer, or if neither the chairman or chief executive officer is present, by such other officer as designated by the board of directors. The presiding officer shall determine the order of the business. General parliamentary procedure shall be followed in all meetings of the membership where procedure is not specifically defined in these bylaws.

(e) Quorum. At annual and at special meetings, a majority of the members shall constitute a quorum, provided, however, that at any time the membership of the credit union increases to such extent that a majority of such membership is in excess of twenty-five (25) members, then twenty-five (25) members shall constitute a quorum. If no quorum is present, an adjournment may be taken to a date not less than seven (7) nor more than fifteen (15) days thereafter; and the members present at any such adjourned meeting shall constitute a quorum, regardless of the number of members present. At least seven (7) days prior to any such adjourned meeting, the secretary shall post notice of the adjourned meeting in a conspicuous place in the office of the credit union.

(f) Voting. No member may vote by proxy. An organization, incorporated or otherwise, holding membership in the credit union may only be represented by one person authorized to represent it and said authorization shall be maintained on file in the credit union.

(g) Act of Membership. A decision made by a majority vote of the members present at any duly held meeting at which a quorum is present is an act of the membership.

(h) Annual Meeting. Emergency exception to in-person quorum requirement. The credit union may hold its annual meeting of the members, and special member meetings for authorized purposes, virtually and without an in-person quorum if all of the following conditions apply and are certified in meeting minutes by a resolution of the majority of a quorum of the board of directors:

- At least one of the following is located in an area where a federal, state, or local authority has declared a state of emergency or major disaster:
 - all or part of a community the credit union serves; or
 - the credit union's headquarters.
- The credit union has the technological capacity to facilitate virtual meeting attendance, voting, and participation.

- Members receive at least seven days' advance notice of the change to a virtual meeting format and appropriate instructions for how to join, participate, and vote during the virtual meeting.

Section 3.06. ELECTIONS

(a) Election Rules. The board of directors shall prescribe election rules, including the procedure to be followed in the event of a tie vote, as part of their written board policy.

(b) Qualification of Directors. No person may be elected or appointed as a director unless that person² meets the requirements specified in the Credit Union Act and Commission rules adopted thereunder.

(c) Nominating Committee. At least one hundred twenty (120) days prior to each annual membership meeting, the chairman of the board with board approval shall appoint a nominating committee of not less than three credit union members in good standing. It shall be the duty of the nominating committee to nominate at least one member for each board vacancy, including any unexpired term, for which elections are to be held. The nominating committee shall file its nominations with the secretary of the board at least ninety (90) days prior to the annual meeting, and the secretary shall notify members at least seventy-five (75) days prior to the annual meeting that nominations for vacancies may also be made by petition signed by one (1%) percent of members with a minimum of twenty (20) and a maximum of five hundred (500).

(d) Notice. The written notice to members must indicate that there will be no nominations from the floor and the election will not be conducted by ballot when there is only one nominee for each position to be filled. A brief statement of qualifications and biographical data in a form approved by the board of directors will be included for each nominee submitted by the nominating committee with the written notice to members. The written notice must state the closing date for receiving nominations by petition. In all cases, the period for receiving nominations by petition must extend at least thirty (30) days from the date that the petition requirement and the list of nominating committee's nominees are mailed to the members.

(e) Petition. Nomination by petition must be filed with the secretary of the board at least forty (40) days prior to the annual meeting. Each nominee by petition must submit a brief statement of qualifications and biographical data in a form approved by the board of directors. The secretary of the board will ensure that nominations by petition along with those of the nominating committee are posted in a conspicuous place in each credit union office at least 30 days prior to the annual meeting.

(f) Vote. All elections are determined by plurality vote. When only one member is nominated for each position to be filled, the chairman of the board may take a voice vote or declare each nominee elected by general consent or acclamation at the annual meeting.

² The membership requirement may not exceed 12 months.

CHAPTER IV. POWERS OF CREDIT UNION

Section 4.01. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

(a) Confidentiality. The officers, directors, advisory directors, committee members, and employees of this credit union shall hold in strict confidence all proprietary information of the credit union, all transactions of this credit union with its members, and all information respecting their personal affairs, except to the extent deemed necessary by the board of directors in accordance with written board policy and subject to the provisions of the Act, the Commission rules and these bylaws.

(b) Availability of Books and Records. All books of accounts and other records shall be available, at all times, to the directors. Upon board approval, committee members may have access to certain credit union information and records that are germane to their particular area of service, according to written policies established by the board. The articles of incorporation and bylaws of this credit union shall be made available for inspection by any member. The board of directors will establish written policies regarding members' access to the articles of incorporation, bylaws, rules, guidelines, board policies, and copies thereof.

(c) Corporate Records. Copies of the articles of incorporation, the bylaws, and any amendments thereto, shall be preserved in a place of safekeeping. Returns of nominations and elections and proceedings of all regular and special meetings of the members and directors shall be recorded in the minute books of this credit union. The minutes of the meetings of members, the board of directors and committees shall be signed by their respective chairmen or presiding officers and by the persons who serve as secretaries of such meetings.

Section 4.02. EVIDENCE OF TRANSACTIONS

Money paid in or out on account of shares, deposits, loans, interest, fees, or fines shall be evidenced as prescribed by the board of directors, provided that such evidence identifies the person withdrawing or authorizing withdrawal of cash, the person paying out cash, the amount and nature of each transaction, and is consistent with industry practices. The credit union shall provide periodic written notice to the member, no less frequently than once each year, of the status and balance of all accounts.

Section 4.03. ENTRANCE FEES

The board of directors may establish an entrance fee for membership.

Section 4.04. EXPENSES, FEES AND PENALTIES

(a) Loan Fees and Expenses. In accordance with the Credit Union Act, the credit union may require members to pay all reasonable expenses and fees incurred in connection with making, closing, disbursing, extending, readjusting or renewing a loan. Such fees and expenses are in addition to interest.

(b) Late Fee. The credit union may charge a member a penalty on each loan payment not paid in full within ten (10) days of its due date. The credit union and borrowing member may agree and stipulate to a reasonable penalty on the amount of any installment or other amount in default. The board of directors in a written policy shall establish the maximum penalty for a delinquent payment. Such penalties do not constitute interest and only one penalty may be charged on each past due payment.

(c) Other Fees and Charges. The board may levy and collect other fees and charges subject to any limitation imposed by applicable law.

CHAPTER V. DIRECTION OF AFFAIRS

Section 5.01. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

(a) Number of Directors. The board of directors of this credit union shall consist of 9 individual members who shall be elected as provided in these bylaws. (The number of directors cannot be less than five). All of the directors shall be members of this credit union. No reduction in the number of directors may be made unless corresponding vacancies exist as a result of deaths, resignations, expiration of terms of office or other actions provided by these bylaws.

(b) Employees on Board of Directors.

No director or immediate family member of a director may be a paid employee of the credit union.

(c) Term of Office. Regular terms of office for directors shall be for 3 years. (The term of office cannot be greater than three years). All regular terms must be for the same number of years, and directors shall hold office until successors are elected and have qualified unless disqualified or removed. The regular terms must be fixed at the beginning, or upon any increase or decrease in the number of directors, such that approximately an equal number of regular terms must expire at each annual meeting.

(d) Vacancies. Vacancies on the board of directors will be filled by election at each annual meeting by and from the membership of the credit union.

(e) Terms. Directors may serve more than one term.

(f) Honorary Directors. The board may appoint not more than six honorary or advisory directors who serve at the pleasure of the board and who advise and consult with the board and aid the board in carrying out its duties and responsibilities. An honorary or advisory director is not considered a member of the board and is not entitled to vote on any matter before the board but, if the Board so determines, may participate in deliberations of the board. An honorary or advisory director need not be eligible for membership in the credit union.

Section 5.02. VACANCIES ON THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Any vacancy occurring on the board of directors shall be filled within sixty (60) days from the date the vacancy occurred, by a majority vote of the directors then holding office. Directors so appointed shall hold office only until the next annual meeting at which any unexpired terms shall be filled by vote of the members, and until the qualification of their successors. The Commissioner may, for good cause shown, extend the period of time for filling a specific vacancy.

Section 5.03. CERTIFICATE OF ELECTION

The chairman of the board and the secretary shall execute a certificate of election that sets forth the names and addresses of the officers, directors, and committee members elected or appointed, and shall file a copy of the certificate of election with the department within forty-five (45) days after the election or appointment, and on forms supplied by the department for that purpose. Such forms may provide for other information as deemed appropriate by the Commissioner.

Section 5.04. MEETINGS OF DIRECTORS

(a) Frequency of Meetings. Regular meetings of the board of directors shall be held at least monthly. The chairman of the board, or in his or her absence the vice-chairman, any other board officer, or the president, may call a special meeting of the board of directors at any time, and shall do so upon written request of any three (3) directors. Because of the confidential nature of their duties, the board of directors shall prescribe written policy governing the attendance at board meetings by persons other than directors. Notice of meetings of the board of directors shall be given in such a manner as the board of directors may from time to time, prescribe by written policy.

(b) Meeting by Telephone or Electronic Means. Subject to the same notice and quorum provisions as for any other meeting of the board of directors, any meeting of the board of directors may be held by telephone conference call or other electronic means in which all or certain of the directors are not present at the place of the meeting; provided, however, that all the directors counted as present can speak to and be heard by the other directors during the meeting. Before any regular meeting may be held in this manner, the members of the board of directors must be provided with a written copy of the agenda and copies of all materials that will be discussed. Minutes will be kept in the same manner as for any other meeting of the board of directors. For the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum and for all voting purposes at such a meeting, all directors participating in the meeting shall be considered present and acting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

(c) Actions Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the board of directors under any provision of the Credit Union Act may be taken without a meeting if all members of the board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to the action. The written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board. Any action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of those consenting directors. Any certificate or other document filed under any provision of the Credit Union Act that relates to action so taken shall state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of the board of directors without a meeting and that these bylaws authorize the directors to so act, and that statement shall be prima facie evidence of such authority.

(d) Confidentiality of Board Deliberations. The officers and directors shall hold in confidence all matters presented to the board for deliberation or determination, except when permitted by applicable law.

Section 5.05. QUORUM

A majority of the number of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting thereof, but fewer than a quorum may adjourn from time to time until a quorum is in attendance.

Section 5.06. MAJORITY ACTION

Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the directors present at any duly held meeting at which a quorum is present is an act of the board of directors. Each director who is present at a meeting will be deemed to have assented to any action taken at such meeting unless the director's dissent to the action is entered in the minutes of the meeting, or unless the director shall file a written dissent thereto with the secretary of the meeting or shall forward that dissent by registered mail to the secretary of the credit union immediately after the meeting.

Section 5.07. REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

(a) Automatic Removal. Any director who fails to attend three (3) consecutive regular board meetings without due cause, or who fails to attend six (6) regular meetings within any twelve-month period following the director's election/appointment is automatically removed from office. A new individual shall fill a vacancy occurring in this manner within sixty (60) days, unless extended by the Commissioner, in accordance with §5.02 of these bylaws.

(b) Removal for Cause. Any director may be removed from office for good cause by a majority vote of the board of directors at a regular meeting or a special meeting of the board called expressly for such purpose. Notice of the meeting must specify the director who is subject to removal. Good cause for removal shall be the failure to perform the duties devolving upon such person as a director, including, but not limited to: (1) Physical abuse or assault, harassment or multiple instances of verbal abuse of a member, employee, officer or other director of the credit union; (2) Misapplication of credit union funds; (3) Breach of fiduciary duty; (4) default on payment of a voluntary obligation to the credit union or has otherwise caused the credit union to incur a financial loss; (5) Neglect or refusal to comply with provisions of the Credit Union Act or Commission rules, these bylaws or the articles of incorporation; (6) Conviction of a felony; (7) Conviction of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; (8) Failure to maintain confidentiality relating to credit union transactions and the financial affairs of its members; and (9) The failure to perform the duties of a director. The president, if also a director, may not serve on the executive committee.

(b) Other Committees. The board of directors may from time to time designate persons to constitute committees, including an audit committee, which shall have and may exercise such powers as the board of directors may determine and specify. In addition to the duties customarily performed by boards of directors, the board of directors shall perform the following special duties and all other duties enumerated in these bylaws, in the laws of the State of Texas pertaining to credit unions, and in the Commission rules, including:

(a) To direct the affairs of the credit union in accordance with the Credit Union Act, Commission rules, articles of incorporation, these bylaws, and sound business practices.

(m) To cause all member accounts to be verified, under controlled conditions, with the records of the credit union in accordance with the Credit Union Act and Commission rules. A statistical sampling procedure may be used in lieu of verifying all accounts provided it is performed in accordance with Generally Accepted Auditing Standards. Records of those accounts so verified must be retained until the following verification of member accounts is completed.

(n) Supervise the collection of loans to members in accordance with written board policy, authorize the charge-off of uncollectible loans when necessary, and authorize the establishment and maintenance of an allowance for loan and lease losses and other reserve allocations as required by Commission rules. It is a responsibility of the board of directors to approve or disapprove applications for loans from members. APPENDIX A—OPTIONAL FIELD OF MEMBERSHIP PROVISIONS

A credit union in the exercise of discretion may select any of the following provisions for inclusion in its field of membership:

1. Any business or organization whose employees or members are within this field of membership.
2. Persons who are receiving retirement, pension, or other benefits as a result of prior employment by any business or organization included within this field of membership.
3. Spouses of persons who died while within the field of membership of this credit union.
4. Groups of employees or members of companies or associations which are located within reasonable geographic proximity of one of this credit union's offices and which have furnished written evidence of the group's desire to be eligible for membership; provided, however, that (1) any group having more than 300 employees or members or (2) any group already being served as primary members of another credit union shall be admitted only by an amendment of this section which specifically names the group being admitted.³

³ See Appendix B for documentation and other requirements to serve these potential members.

APPENDIX B -- OPTION 4 FIELD OF MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS

(a) Documentation Requirements. In order to provide credit union services to groups that lack the potential membership to organize their own credit union, the Commission has authorized these persons to be eligible for membership in an existing credit union under the provision of Option 4. Any credit union wishing to accept such person into its field of membership must comply with all of the following requirements. Admitting any person under this provision without first fully complying with the delineated requirements will result in the activities being classified as an offense under Section 122.253 of the Act.

1. The credit union must receive an affidavit signed by an authorized representative of the group, which specifically indicates:

- that the group wants to be eligible for membership in the credit union;
- the groups community of interest;
- whether the group presently has other credit union services available;
- the number of persons currently included within the group and their location; and
- the group's proximity to the credit union's nearest office.

2. The board of directors, at a duly called meeting, must adopt a resolution which specifically makes the determination that the group meets all the Option 4 criteria (e.g. size, reasonable proximity, and no credit union services currently available) and formally authorizes the inclusion of the group into the field of membership.

3. The secretary of the board shall official record the pertinent information in the Small Select Group Register for groups approved for membership under the provisions of Option 4.

(b) Register. The credit union shall establish a Small Select Group Register to officially record the formal admission of small select groups into the credit union's field of membership. The Register and the affidavit from the admitted group shall become a permanent record of the credit union and shall be maintained in appropriate form and in sufficient detail to demonstrate compliance with all applicable requirements. At a minimum, the Register shall include the following:

- Name and address of group;
- The size of the group;
- The community of interest; and
- The date accepted into membership.

(c) Reasonable Geographic Proximity. Under Option 4, a small select group must be within the service area of one of the credit union's offices. A service area is the area that can reasonably be served by the office accessible to the proposed group. The non-availability of other credit union service is a factor to be considered in determining whether the group is within reasonable proximity of the credit union office. For the purposes of this section, an office is defined as a place where shares are accepted, loan applications are accepted, and loans are disbursed. This definition includes a credit union owned office, a mobile branch, or a credit union owned electronic facility that meets, at a minimum, these requirements. An office can also include a shared branch if the credit union either (1) owns directly or through a CUSO or similar organization at least a 5 percent interest in the facility, or (2) the facility is local to the credit union and the credit union is an authorized participant in the facility. This definition does not include an ATM.

(d) Overlap Protection. Overlap protection will not be afforded for groups admitted to membership under the provisions of Option 4.

(e) Group Restructuring. If an admitted group expands its operations internally, by acquisition or otherwise, the credit union may serve these new entrants to its field of membership if the group still meets all the criteria for Option 4. Where the expansion results in non-compliance with any the Option 4 criteria, the credit union must apply for an amendment of Section 3.01 of its bylaws.
